

HB 3281 -- Redline

Introduced to Committee Substitute -- To put cable television network providers under the purview of the PSC for any rate increases or reductions of channels available to customers

Deletions ~~struck~~ · Insertions underlined

NEWS RELEASES HELPFUL LINKS ~~Introduced~~Committee VersionSubstitute ? House Bill 3281 History OTHER VERSIONS -- ~~Committee~~Introduced SubstituteVersion | | Email Key:

Red = new code to be enacted WEST virginia legislature regular session ~~Introduced~~Committee Substitute for House Bill 3281 By Delegates J.

Kelly ~~[Introduced~~[Originating March in 16, the 2021;Committee on Government Organization;

~~Referred March to 25, the 2021]~~Committee on Government Organization] A BILL to repeal Sec.24D-1-26 of the Code of West Virginia, 1931, as amended;

~~(b)(b) -Effective~~Effective July 1, 2021, the commission shall have the authority to determine whether effective competition among cable providers exist in the state by locality.

The commission shall have the authority to determine whether to require a cable provider who provides internet or cable service for schools, hospitals, and government agencies to maintain technical and call center support in this state.

Bill Status | Bill Tracking | Legacy WV Code | Bulletin Board | District Maps | Senate Roster | House Roster | Live | Blog | Jobs | Links | Home This Web site is maintained by the West Virginia Legislature's Office of Reference & Information.

Generated by One Click Politics — a computer-generated comparison, not an authoritative print.