Section 1.

Chapter 23, Title 5 of the Delaware Code is hereby repealed in its entirety.

Section 2.

Amend Title 5 of the Delaware Code by making deletions as shown by strike through and insertions as shown by underling as follows and by redesignating accordingly:

Chapter 23.

Money Transmission and Virtual Currency Subchapter I.

General Provisions Sec. 2301.

Title.

This chapter may be cited as the "Delaware Money Transmission and Virtual Currency Modernization Act."

Sec. 2302.

Purpose.

It is the intent and purpose of the General Assembly that the provisions of this chapter accomplish the following:

(1) Ensure states can coordinate in all areas of regulation, licensing, and supervision to eliminate unnecessary regulatory burden and more effectively utilize regulator resources.

(2) Protect the public from financial crime.

(3) Standardize the types of activities that are subject to licensing or otherwise exempt from licensing.

(4) Modernize safety and soundness requirements to ensure customer funds are protected in an environment that supports innovative and competitive business practices.

Sec. 2303.

Definitions.

As used in this chapter:

(1) "Acting in concert" means persons knowingly acting together with a common goal of jointly acquiring control of a licensee whether or not pursuant to an express agreement.

(2) "Authorized delegate" means a person a licensee designates to engage in money transmission on behalf of the licensee.

Subchapter II.

Licensing Sec. 2304.

License required.

(a) A person may not engage in the business of money transmission or advertise, solicit, or hold itself out as providing money transmission unless the person is licensed under this chapter.

(b) Subsection (a) of this section does not apply to the following:

(1) A person that is an authorized delegate of a person licensed under this chapter acting within the scope of authority conferred by a written contract with the licensee.

(2) A person that is exempt under Sec. 2305 of this title and does not engage in money transmission outside the scope of such exemption.

(c) A license issued under this chapter is not transferable or assignable.

Sec. 2305.

Exemptions.

(a) This chapter does not apply to any of the following:

(1) An operator of a payment system to the extent that it provides processing, clearing, or settlement services, between or among persons exempted by this section or licensees, in connection with wire transfers, credit card transactions, debit card transactions, stored-value transactions, automated clearing house transfers, or similar funds transfers.

(2) A person appointed as an agent of a payee to collect and process a payment from a payor to the payee for goods or services, other than money transmission itself, provided to the payor by the payee, provided that all of the following requirements are satisfied:

There exists a written agreement between the payee and the agent directing the agent to collect and process payments from payors on the payee's behalf.

The payee holds the agent out to the public as accepting payments for goods or services on the payee's behalf.

c.

Payment for the goods and services is treated as received by the payee upon receipt by the agent so that the payor's obligation is extinguished and there is no risk of loss to the payor if the agent fails to remit the funds to the payee.

(3) A person that acts as an intermediary by processing payments between an entity that has directly incurred an outstanding money transmission obligation to a sender, and the sender's designated recipient, provided that the entity does all of the following:

Is properly licensed or exempt from licensing requirements under this chapter.

Provides a receipt, electronic record, or other written confirmation to the sender identifying the entity as the provider of money transmission in the transaction.

c.

Bears sole responsibility to satisfy the outstanding money transmission obligation to the sender, including the obligation to make the sender whole in connection with any failure to transmit the funds to the sender's designated recipient.

(4) The United States or a department, agency, or instrumentality thereof, or its agent.

(5) Money transmission by the United States Postal Service or by an agent of the United States Postal Service.

(6) A state, county, city, or any other governmental agency or governmental subdivision or instrumentality of a state, or its agent.

(7) A federally insured depository financial institution, bank holding company, office of an international banking corporation, foreign bank that establishes a federal branch pursuant to the International Bank Act, 12 U.S.C.

(12) An individual employed by a licensee, authorized delegate, or any person exempted from the licensing requirements of the chapter when acting within the scope of employment and under the supervision of the licensee, authorized delegate, or exempted person as an employee and not as an independent contractor.

(13) A person expressly appointed as a third party service provider to or agent of an entity exempt under paragraph (a)(7) of this section, solely to the extent that all of the following conditions are satisfied:

The service provider or agent is engaging in money transmission on behalf of and pursuant to a written agreement with the exempt entity that sets forth the specific functions that the service provider or agent is to perform.

The exempt entity assumes all risk of loss and all legal responsibility for satisfying the outstanding money transmission obligations owed to purchasers and holders of the outstanding money transmission obligations upon receipt of the purchaser's or holder's money or monetary value by the service provider or agent.

(14) A person exempt by regulation or if the Commissioner finds such exemption to be in the public interest and that the regulation of such person is not necessary for the purposes of this chapter.

(b) The Commissioner may require that any person claiming to be exempt from licensing pursuant to this section provide information and documentation to the Commissioner demonstrating that it qualifies for any claimed exemption.

Sec. 2306.

Application and license fees.

(a) An application for a license must be in writing on a form the Commissioner prescribes.

The application must include all of the following:

(1) The legal name and every address where the applicant will conduct business.

(2) If the applicant is a partnership, association, corporation, or other form of business organization, the name and address of each member, director, and principal officer.

(3) A description of the applicant's activities in detail and for the periods the Commissioner requires.

(4) Other information the Commissioner requires.

(5) Any other individual associated with the applicant and the proposed licensed activities.

(c) The applicant shall provide the fingerprints to the Commissioner or a designee of the Commissioner for the background investigation.

(d) At the time of application, the applicant shall pay to the Commissioner a non-refundable investigation fee of $172.50.

Sec. 2307.

Issuance of license.

(a) Upon receipt of an application for an original license that contains all required items, the Commissioner shall promptly notify the applicant in writing of the date on which the application is deemed complete.

(b) A determination by the Commissioner that an application is complete and accepted for processing means only that the application appears to include all required items and addresses all required matters. The determination does not constitute an assessment of the substance of the application or the sufficiency of the information provided.

(c) Upon determining an application is complete, the Commissioner shall investigate the applicant's financial condition and responsibility, financial and business experience, character, and general fitness.

The Commissioner may conduct an on-site investigation of the applicant at the applicant's expense.

The Commissioner shall issue a license if all of the following conditions are satisfied:

(1) The applicant has complied with Sec. 2306 of this title.

(2) The applicant's financial condition and responsibility, financial and business experience, competence, character, and general fitness of the applicant; and the competence, experience, character, and general fitness of the key individuals and persons in control of the applicant indicate that it is in the interest of the public to permit the applicant to engage in money transmission.

(d) If an applicant is subject to a multistate licensing process, the Commissioner may accept the investigation results of a lead investigative state for the purpose of subsection (c) of this section if the lead investigative state has sufficient staffing, expertise, and minimum standards.

(e) If an application is denied, the Commissioner shall issue a formal written notice of denial within 30 days of the decision.

The notice must include a written order setting forth the facts upon which the denial is based and advising the applicant of the right to request a hearing in accordance with Chapter 101 of Title 29.

(g) Upon approval of an application and the applicant's payment of an annual license fee of $230, plus $4.60 for each authorized delegate location in this State in excess of 1, the Commissioner shall issue a license to the applicant.

Sec. 2308.

Net worth.

(a) A licensee shall maintain at all times a tangible net worth of the greater of $100,000 or 3% of total assets for the first $100 million, 2% of additional assets for $100 million to $1 billion, and 0.5% of additional assets for over $1 billion.

(b) A licensee shall demonstrate tangible net worth through its most recent audited or unaudited financial statements.

(c) Except as otherwise provided in subsections (a) and (b) of this section, the Commissioner may, for good cause shown, exempt these requirements in whole or in part.

Sec. 2309.

Surety bonds.

(a) A licensee shall file with the Commissioner an original corporate surety bond in a form satisfactory to the Commissioner.

The bond must be issued by a corporation authorized to transact business in this State.

The Commissioner shall determine the principal sum of the bond, which must be between $100,000 and $500,000.

In determining the bond amount, the Commissioner must consider all of the following:

(1) The amount of the licensee's average daily money transmission liability in this State.

(2) The licensee's tangible net worth.

(3) The licensee's total assets.

(4) Any other factor the Commissioner deems relevant and appropriate.

(b) A licensee that maintains a bond in the maximum amount provided for in subsection (a) of this section is not required to calculate average daily money transmission liability.

(c) The Commissioner may not accept a bond unless it meets all of the following requirements:

(1) The aggregate value of the bond must be equal to or greater than the amount provided in subsection (a) of this section.

(2) The term of the bond must be commensurate with the license period or continuous.

(3) The expiration date of the bond may not be earlier than midnight of the date on which the license expires.

(d) Compensation under the bond is for actual losses and is not payable for claims made by a business creditor, third-party service provider, agent, or person employed by the licensee.

(e) An insurer shall pay a surety claim to the Office of the State Bank Commissioner within 90 days after receipt of the claim.

A claim paid after 90 days is subject to daily interest at the legal rate under Sec. 2301 of Title 6. The aggregate liability of the surety on the bond, excluding interest, may not exceed the amount of the bond.

(f) If a licensee changes its surety company or the bond is amended, the licensee shall immediately provide the Commissioner with the amended original copy of the surety bond.

Cancellation of an existing bond by a surety is ineffective unless written notice of its intention to cancel is filed with the Commissioner at least 30 days before the date upon which cancellation takes effect.

(g) The Commissioner may require potential claimants to provide documentation and affirmations as the Commissioner determines are necessary.

If the Commissioner determines that multiple consumers have been injured by a licensee, the Commissioner may publish a notice to identify all relevant claims.

(h) When a surety company receives a claim against the bond of a licensee, the surety company must immediately notify the Commissioner.

The surety company may not pay any claim unless and until it receives notice to do so from the Commissioner.

(i) The Commissioner shall submit a claim to the insurer within 2 years of the date of the cancellation or date of termination of the surety bond.

Sec. 2310.

Renewal of license.

(a) A license under this chapter must be renewed annually.

The annual renewal fee is $230 plus $4.60 for each location in the State of the offices of the applicant's authorized delegates, in excess of 1, subject to the following:

(1) The fee must be paid no more than 60 days before the license expires.

(2) A renewal term is for a period of 1 year, beginning on January 1 and expiring on December 31 of the same year.

(b) A licensee shall submit a renewal application with the renewal fee, in a form and in a medium prescribed by the Commissioner.

The renewal application must state or contain a description of each material change in information submitted by the licensee in its original license application which has not been reported to the Commissioner.

(e) The Commissioner may deny a license renewal if the licensee fails to comply with a supervisory directive.

(f) The Commissioner may use NMLS to process license renewals.

Sec. 2311.

Maintenance of license.

(a) If a licensee no longer meets the requirements for a license under this chapter, the Commissioner may suspend or revoke the license.

(b) An applicant shall, at all times, meet the licensing requirements of this chapter.

Sec. 2312.

Multi-state automated licensing system.

(a) The Commissioner may participate in an automated system involving 1 or more other states to facilitate the application and licensing processes of this chapter.

(b) If the Commissioner joins a system under subsection (a) of this section, the Commissioner may establish additional requirements by regulation as needed.

(c) The administrator of a system under subsection (a) of this section may do all of the following on behalf of the Commissioner:

(1) Collect from an applicant or licensee subject to the system a payment due to the Commissioner under this chapter.

(2) Collect information and maintain records in an electronic or other format relating to an applicant or licensee.

(3) Submit fingerprints and other information required for a criminal history background check to the Federal Bureau of Investigation or other law-enforcement agency.

(d) Information maintained on a system under subsection (a) of this section regarding an applicant or licensee may be shared with any other state participating in that system for the purpose of licensing, regulating, or supervising the applicant or licensee under a statute similar to this chapter, if that state could have obtained the information directly from the applicant or licensee under its own law.

Subchapter III.

Acquisition of Control and Change of Key Individuals Sec. 2314.

Acquisition of control.

(a) A person, or group of persons acting in concert, shall obtain the written approval of the Commissioner prior to acquiring control of a licensee.

This requirement does not apply to an individual who becomes a key individual in the ordinary course of business without acquiring a controlling interest.

(b) To request approval, the person or group of persons under subsection (a) of this section, shall, in cooperation with the licensee, submit the following:

(1) An application in a form and in a medium prescribed by the Commissioner.

(2) A non-refundable investigation fee of $172.50.

(c) The Commissioner may allow the submission of required information through methods other than NMLS upon request.

(d) The application must include all required information for any new key individuals who have not previously completed the requirements for a license.

(e) The Commissioner shall approve or deny the application within a reasonable time after it is deemed complete.

(f) A determination by the Commissioner that an application is complete and is accepted for processing means only that the application appears to include all required items and address all required matters. The determination does not constitute an assessment of the substance of the application or the sufficiency of the information provided.

(g) Upon determining an application is complete, the Commissioner shall investigate the applicant's financial condition and responsibility, financial and business experience, character, and general fitness of the person, or group of persons acting in concert, seeking to acquire control.

The Commissioner shall approve an acquisition of control under this section if the Commissioner finds all of the following:

(1) The requirements of subsections (b) and (d) have been satisfied, as applicable.

(2) The financial condition and responsibility, financial and business experience, competence, character, and general fitness of the person, or group of persons acting in concert, seeking to acquire control;

(i) The Commissioner shall issue a formal written notice of the denial of a license application within 30 days of the decision to deny the application.

The Commissioner shall issue a written order that includes a statement of the facts upon which the action is based and a notice that the licensee may request a hearing in accordance with Chapter 101 of Title 29.

(j) The requirements of subsections (a) and (b) of this section do not apply to any of the following:

(1) A person that acts as a proxy for the sole purpose of voting at a designated meeting of the shareholders or holders of voting shares or voting interests of a licensee or a person in control of a licensee.

(2) A person that acquires control of a licensee by devise or descent.

(3) A person that acquires control of a licensee as a personal representative, custodian, guardian, conservator, or trustee, or as an officer appointed by a court of competent jurisdiction or by operation of law.

(4) A person that is exempt under Sec. 2305(a)(7) of this title.

(5) A person that the Commissioner determines is not subject to subsection (a) of this section based on the public interest.

(6) A public offering of securities of a licensee or a person in control of a licensee.

(7) An internal reorganization of a person in control of the licensee where the ultimate person in control of the licensee remains the same.

(k) Persons in paragraphs (j)(2) through (7) of this section, in cooperation with the licensee, shall notify the Commissioner within 15 days after the acquisition of control.

(l) The requirements of subsections (a) and (b) of this section do not apply to a streamlined acquisition of control, provided that all of the following requirements are satisfied:

(1) The person has not had a license revoked or suspended and has not controlled a licensee that has had a license revoked or suspended, while the person was in control of that licensee within the previous 5 years.

(2) If the person is a licensee, the person is well managed and has received at least a satisfactory rating for compliance at its most recent examination by an MSB accredited state, if a rating was given.

(4) The licensee to be acquired, and the licensee making the acquisition, will not implement any material changes to their respective business plans as a result of the acquisition of control.

(5) The person provides notice of the acquisition in cooperation with the licensee and attests to the requirements of this subsection in a form and in a medium prescribed by the Commissioner.

(m) A notice provided under subsection (l) of this section is deemed approved if the Commissioner does not issue a notice of disapproval within 30 days after the date the Commissioner determines the notice is complete.

(n) Prior to filing an application for approval to acquire control, a person may request in writing a determination from the Commissioner as to whether the person would be considered a person in control of a licensee upon consummation of a proposed transaction.

If the Commissioner determines that the person would not be a person in control, the proposed person and transaction are not subject to the requirements of subsections (a) and (b) of this section.

(o) If an applicant is subject to a multistate licensing process that includes a control determination, the Commissioner may accept the investigation results and determination of a lead investigative state. The Commissioner may rely on such results provided the lead state has sufficient staffing, expertise, and adheres to minimum regulatory standards consistent with this chapter Sec. 2315.

Notice and information requirements for a change of key individuals.

(a) A licensee adding or replacing any key individual shall do all of the following:

(1) Provide notice in a manner prescribed by the Commissioner within 15 days after the effective date of the key individual's appointment.

(2) Provide information as required by the Commissioner within 45 days of the effective date.

(b) Within 90 days of the date on which the notice provided pursuant to this section was determined to be complete, the Commissioner may issue a notice of disapproval of a key individual if the competence, experience, character, or integrity of the individual is not in the best interests of the public or the customers of the licensee to permit the individual to be a key individual of the licensee.

(c) A notice of disapproval must include a statement of the basis for the disapproval and must be sent to the licensee and the disapproved individual.

A licensee may appeal a notice of disapproval in accordance with Chapter 101 of Title 29 after receipt of the notice of disapproval.

(d) A key individual is deemed approved if the Commissioner does not issue a notice of disapproval within 90 days after the Commissioner determines the notice is complete.

Subchapter IV.

Records and Reporting Sec. 2316.

Maintenance of books and records by licensee.

Every licensee, and as applicable, the authorized delegate, shall maintain books, accounts and records relating to all transactions under this chapter necessary to enable the Commissioner to enforce full compliance with this chapter.

Sec. 2317.

Retention of books and records by licensee.

The Commissioner shall prescribe the minimum information to be maintained in the books, accounts, and records of a licensee and its authorized delegates to ensure the Commissioner can effectively determine compliance with this chapter.

Sec. 2318.

Contents of books and records.

A licensee and an authorized delegate shall keep books, accounts, and records available as provided in this chapter for the period the Commissioner requires by regulation.

Sec. 2319.

Reporting requirements.

The Commissioner shall prescribe reporting requirements, including all of the following:

(1) Reports of condition and income.

(2) Authorized delegate reports.

(3) Submission of audited financial statements.

(4) The reporting of any other event the Commissioner prescribes by regulation.

Sec. 2320.

Bank Secrecy Act reports.

A licensee and an authorized delegate shall file all reports required by federal currency reporting, record keeping, and suspicious activity reporting requirements under the Bank Secrecy Act and other federal and state laws relating to money laundering.

The timely filing of a complete and accurate report with the appropriate federal agency is deemed compliant with the requirements of this section.

Sec. 2321.

Maintenance of permissible investments.

(a) A licensee shall maintain at all times permissible investments with a market value of at least the aggregate amount of all its outstanding money transmission obligations.

The market value must be computed under United States generally accepted accounting principles.

(b) The licensee shall maintain permissible investments in a manner the Commissioner prescribes by regulation.

Supervision and examination of business by Commissioner.

(a) Every person or combination of persons licensed to transact business as provided in this chapter is subject to the supervision and examination of the Commissioner.

The Commissioner or the Commissioner's authorized representative shall examine each licensee annually or at intervals the Commissioner determines are necessary.

(b) During an examination, the Commissioner or the Commissioner's authorized representative must be given access to every part of the office or place of business visited and to the assets, securities, books, and papers of the business.

(c) An examination must include a thorough review of the licensee's affairs, including resources, liabilities, investment of funds, and the business operations and internal controls.

The Commissioner shall determine compliance with this chapter, regulations adopted under this chapter, and other applicable law.

The Commissioner may examine a person under oath or affirmation regarding the affairs of the licensee.

(d) If, in the Commissioner's opinion, it is necessary for a thorough examination of a licensee, the Commissioner may retain 1 or more accountants, attorneys, appraisers or other third parties to assist the Commissioner in the examination.

Within 10 days after receipt of a statement from the Commissioner, the licensee shall pay or reimburse the fees, costs and expenses of any third parties retained by the Commissioner under this subsection.

(e) The Commissioner may prescribe regulations to carry out the purposes of this chapter.

Sec. 2323.

Suspension and revocation.

(a) The Commissioner may suspend or revoke a license or order a licensee to revoke the designation of an authorized delegate if any of the following apply:

(1) The licensee fails to comply with any provision of this chapter, any rule or regulation adopted by the Commissioner, or any other applicable state or federal law.

(2) The Commissioner becomes aware of a fact or condition that, had it existed at the time of the original application, would have provided grounds for the Commissioner to deny the application.

(3) The licensee fails to cooperate with an examination or investigation by the Commissioner.

(4) The licensee engages in fraud, intentional misrepresentation, or gross negligence or employs operational practices that are unfair, deceptive, or abusive.

(5) An authorized delegate is convicted of a state or federal anti-money laundering statute, or violates a rule adopted or an order issued under this chapter, as a result of the licensee's willful misconduct or willful blindness.

(6) The competence, experience, character, or general fitness of the licensee, authorized delegate, person in control of a licensee, key individual, or responsible person of the authorized delegate indicates that it is not in the public interest.

(3) Conduct a reasonable risk-based background investigation sufficient for the licensee to determine whether the authorized delegate has complied and will likely comply with applicable state and federal law.

(b) An authorized delegate shall operate in full compliance with this chapter.

(c) The written contract required by subsection (a) of this section must be signed by the licensee and the authorized delegate and must include all of the following:

(1) Appoint the person signing the contract as the licensee's authorized delegate with the authority to conduct money transmission on behalf of the licensee.

(2) Define the nature and scope of the relationship between the licensee and the authorized delegate and the respective rights and responsibilities of the parties.

(3) Require the authorized delegate to agree to fully comply with all applicable state and federal laws, rules, and regulations pertaining to money transmission, including this chapter and regulations implementing this chapter, relevant provisions of the Bank Secrecy Act and the USA PATRIOT Act.

(4) Require the authorized delegate to remit and handle money and monetary value in accordance with the terms of the contract between the licensee and the authorized delegate.

(5) Impose a trust on money and monetary value net of fees received for money transmission for the benefit of the licensee.

(6) Require the authorized delegate to prepare and maintain records as required by this chapter or as the Commissioner reasonably requests.

(7) Acknowledge that the authorized delegate consents to examination or investigation by the Commissioner.

(8) Acknowledge that the licensee is subject to regulation by the Commissioner and that, as part of that regulation, the Commissioner may suspend or revoke an authorized delegate designation or require the licensee to terminate an authorized delegate designation.

(9) Acknowledge receipt of the written policies and procedures required under paragraph (a)(1) of this section.
