~~This bill authorizes a judicial officer, attorney general, deputy attorney general, or assistant~~

~~attorney general to be issued a professional permit to carry weapons under the provisions of Code section 724.6.~~

~~For judicial officers, the sheriff of the issuing county may require the applicant, at the applicant's expense, to complete a proficiency examination prior to the permit to carry weapons being issued. The bill provides that a permit issued to a judicial officer, attorney general, deputy attorney general, or assistant attorney general grants authorization to go armed anywhere in the state at all times, including on the grounds of a school.~~

~~The bill provides that a permit issued to a judicial officer, attorney general, deputy attorney general, or assistant attorney general is valid through the holder of the permit's period of employment unless otherwise canceled.~~

~~When the employment is terminated, the holder of the permit is required to surrender the permit to the issuing officer for cancellation.~~

~~The bill defines a judicial officer as a supreme court justice, a judge of the court of appeals, a district judge, a district associate judge, an associate juvenile judge, an associate probate judge, or a magistrate.~~

~~The term also includes a person who is temporarily serving as a justice, judge, or magistrate as permitted by law.~~

~~The bill allows the supreme court to impose additional training or other requirements on judicial officers who hold a permit issued under the bill.~~
